

CUSTOMIZE YOUR DINOQUEST PARTNERSHIP

Connect with Kids - $15,000

Reptiles, sleepovers, shoving your hands in dirt – what’s more fun for kids?

DinoQuest includes a structured educational component as well as these playful children’s activities, and your Connect with Kids partnership is an opportunity to reach teachers, parents, and students.

.....

The Garden’s education division will present DinoQuest: A Tropical Trek Through Time, which includes:

- Educator Night, a behind-the-scenes, special-access tour of the exhibit installation.
- Educator Guide, a printed piece for teachers to use throughout the exhibit, offering dino facts, information about dinos in Missouri, and paleobotany, the study of plants as revealed through archaeology.
- Teacher workshop, a one-day session taught by fossil collector and sculptor Guy Darrouh with Garden paleobotanist Dr. Alan Graham
- Garden classes for sixth- through eighth-graders focusing on plant evolution.
- Summer Camp, a one-week, dino-themed, camp for kids.
- Backpack and guide for families, a kit available for check-out at the Children’s Garden, which will offer fun facts and tips for exploring DinoQuest.

Dig in to the fun. Become a Connect with Kids partner, and receive:

Jurassic Bugs - $7,000

Come on, they're only sculptures. Get close to that 4-foot centipede. Get your picture taken near that 12-inch cockroach. Don't be afraid of that 10-foot sea scorpion. The Sophia M. Sachs Butterfly House in Chesterfield is the perfect venue to house the buggiest parts of this fascinating exhibit.
