Exact cash fare is required to be paid aboard MetroBus. Current passes or validated tickets are required on MetroLink. Metro Passes can be purchased at Metro-Ride Transit Store or in advance at select vendor locations (visit www.metrostlouis.org for locations). In addition, One-Day Passes and MetroLink Tickets can be purchased at Ticket Vending Machines (TVMs) located at each MetroLink station.

Multiple Stops and Routes: a Two-Hour Solution

The "Multi-Use Transfer" and "Two-Hour Pass" are each valid for Metro System travel - - on both MetroBus and MetroLink - - in any direction for two hours, all for one fair price!

Upon boarding MetroBus, pay the appropriate amount for MetroBus Fare with Multi-Use Transfer. You will receive a Multi-Use Transfer that shows the date and two-hour expiration time. This Multi-Use Transfer is valid only for the person to whom it was originally issued. (If, however, you purchased a Two-Hour Pass and it has not yet been validated at a MetroLink Station, the MetroBus Operator will take the Pass and issue a Multi-Use Transfer valid for two hours of travel). To transfer to additional MetroBus vehicles, present the Transfer to the Operator for verification of the correct date and expiration time. If you need to make additional transfers, the MetroBus Operator will return the Transfer to you. Expired or invalid Transfers will not be returned. If the valid time on the Multi-Use Transfer has elapsed, you will need to pay an additional Metro fare to board and complete your trip.

To transfer to MetroLink, be prepared to show your Multi-Use Transfer to the Fare Inspector for verification of the correct date and expiration time. Expired or invalid Transfers will not be returned and will render the passenger liable for a citation and fine. In addition, if the valid time on the Multi-Use Transfer has elapsed, you will need to disembark and purchase an additional Metro fare to complete your trip.
